Delegates to Dallas Council of Parents and Teachers

Mrs. H. M. MACQUISTON Mrs. RAY NESBITT

The North Dallas High Parent-Teacher Association was organized in 1922. This year the Association will give the tenth scholarship of $150.00, also the seventh Life Membership, at $25.00 each, in the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The luncheon for the teachers at the beginning of school and the entertainment of the January and June graduating classes are annual affairs. This year members of the football team were entertained with a dance, an all-city R. O. T. C. officers' dance was sponsored, and costume parties were given for the parents and pupils.

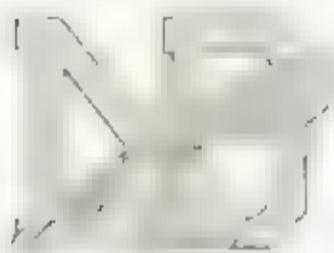

The first joint meeting of the P.-T. A. and the Dad's Club was held Friday night, December 7th.

Awards are given each year, and welfare work in the school is done by the Association.

The Association is striving to keep the silver loving cup for the second consecutive year, for attendance at the High School Section of the Council.

Sewing for the Red Cross has been one of the outstanding features of the year's work. This was carried on by the Association and the six affiliated elementary schools. Mrs. H. M. MacQuiston was Red Cross chairman of the six high schools of the city.

The book exchange is conducted each fall and spring for the benefit of the pupils.

The Pan American Student Forum, formerly the Pan-American League, was organized on November 10, 1927, by a group of Spanish and history teachers and advanced students of Spanish. The purpose of the organization is to promote closer relationship, sympathy, and understanding among the people of the Americas. The Dallas Chapter was the original chapter, and she has granted charters to many other high schools throughout the country. One of the members of the North Dallas unit, Paul Rainwater is on the National Board of Governors. We owe thanks to our local sponsor, Miss Hinde, for her untiring efforts to make the North Dallas unit a success.

The Adelphi Forensic Club is the nucleus for the debating teams of North Dallas High School. From its members come those to be elected to the National High School Honor Society of Public Speakers who have completed satisfactory work in interscholastic competition in speech work. All but four of our members have become eligible to membership in the NEI this year. Four of those becoming members have earned the degree of distinction which is the highest degree obtainable.

'ROUND HOME

Puzzled Doctor: "You should be well by now. Have you carried out all my instructions?"

Patient: "All but one. I can't take that two-mile walk every morning. I get dizzy."

Puzzled Doctor: "Dizzy? I don't understand."

Patient: "I must have forgotten to tell you. I'm a lighthouse keeper."

"Hannah, do you know anything about my wife's whereabouts?"

"Yes, sir, I put them in the wash."

UNTRUTHFUL ADVERTISING

"Can you beat it?"

"What now?"

"I bought this suit on a 'pay-as-you-can' plan, and now they insist that I pay when I can't."

ESCAPED HIM

Patron: "I haven't come to any ham in this sandwich yet."

Waiter: "Try another bite."

Patron (taking huge mouthful): "Nope, not yet."

Waiter: "Darn it! You must have gone right past it."

HELPED HIMSELF TO HEALTH

Housewife: "Look here, my man, why do you always come to my house to beg?"

Tramp: "Doctor's orders, Ma'am."

Housewife: "Doctor's orders!"

Tramp: "Yes'm. He told me, when I found the food that agreed with me, to continue it."

BOYS WILL GROW UP

Freshman: "Mama, may I go out tonight?"

Sophomore: "Going out tonight, Mother Home at ten."

Junior: "Going out tonight, Dad."

Senior: "G'night, Dad. I'll bring in the milk."

THE LATIN FOR IT

The examination question read, "Give the principal parts of any Latin verb."

One none-too-bright student, unable to give a correct answer, wrote:

"Slippo, slippere, falli, bumptus."

The paper came back, corrected, with these words:

"Failo, failere, fluncto, suspendum."

KINDLY CONSOLATION

3000 YEARS AGO AESOP SAID—

A lion met a tiger
As they drew beside a pool.
Said the tiger, "Tell me why
You're roaring like a fool?"
"That's not foolish," said the lion
With a twinkle in his eyes.
"They call me king of all beasts,
Because I advertise."
A rabbit heard them talking
And ran home like a streak;
He thought he'd try the lion's plan
But his roar was a squeak.
A fox came to investigate—
And had luncheon in the woods.
Moral—when you advertise, my friends,

There was a moment of silence. (1)
"Mamma," piped a shrill voice, (1)
"I found a bedbug in his bed."

COULDN'T SCARE HIM

Boss: "Did you collect that bill?"
K.L.: "No, sir. He hit me over the head with a waste basket and kicked me out the front door."

Boss: "You go back and collect that bill. I'll show him he can't scare me."

A ROUGH REPORT

First Golf Partner: "Golfing is pie for me."
Second Golf Partner: "I've noticed you take plenty of slices."

THE SPORT MODEL ZOO

A balky mule has four-wheeled brakes,
A billy goat has bumpers,
A firefly has a bright spotlight,
Rabbits are puddle jumpers,
Camels have balloon-tired feet,
And carry spares of what they eat,
But still I think that nothing beats
The kangaroos with rumble seats.

HEY! HEY!

Professor: "Adolph, what would you suggest to bring back prosperity?"

Adolph: "The horse, sir. Bring back the horse and the country will be stabilized."

FELLOW SUFFERER

A landlord wrote to his tenant: "Dear Sir:—I regret to inform you that my rent is much overdue. Will you please forward me a check?"

Back came the reply: "Dear Sir:—I see no reason why I should pay your rent. I can't pay my own."

Truman F.: "You know old man Ford, the butcher. What do you suppose he weighs?"

Harold S.: "I don't know. What does he weigh?"

Truman F.: "Meat."

When is a tombstone like a tallow dip?
When it is set up for a late husband.

J. H. C.: "What are you crying about?"

Mary Jane S.: "A horse ran away with my brother, threw him out of the carriage, and he had been laid up for six months."

J. H. C.: "Why, that's nothing. My brother had a terrible accident, too; only his was different; he ran away with the horse. He's laid up now for six years."

"When may a bird be said to occupy a feather bed?"

"When it sleeps upon the wing."

David C.: "I think the sparrows are becoming a regular nuisance; some years ago they imported a lot of English sparrows over here to eat the worms that were killing the trees. Now, which do you think is the worst—the sparrows or the worms?"

James W.: "I don't know; I never had the sparrows."

"Why is a passenger on the B. & O. like Teddy Roosevelt?"

"Because they are both rough riders."

Horace W.: "What is the best way to get fat?"

Howard E.: "That's what I'd like to know."

Horace W.: "Go to the butcher's and buy it."

Martha D.: "At what time was Adam born?"

Margaret R.: "When?"

Martha D.: "A little before Eve."

A man will promise women and babies anything, just to keep them quiet.

The TRADITION of QUALITY

ONE reason for quality is its great endurance. This store for men and young men was here earlier than the youth of your fathers. The quality to which it holds itself argues that it will be here, still thriving and growing, when you have become the parent . . . and so on through succeeding generations.
